

When I saw the article in our local newspaper about Sinclair Broadcasting forcing its stations to carry an anti-Kerry documentary I was very angry. This is an obvious example of large media company abuse of the supposed "free" media in this country. I will boycott Rochester's Fox TV station if this is allowed to happen. Fortunately our local newspaper isn't owned by Sinclair.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. We need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.
